City of Cleveland's Snow Emergency Parking Ban is Lifted

CLEVELAND – The City of Cleveland has lifted the snow emergency parking ban as of 8:00 a.m. today.

To our municipal workers, police officers, firefighters, Emergency Medical Services, and hospital workers, thank you for your service during this difficult and challenging weather.

The Department of Public Works has 46 pieces of snow removal equipment working today to clear residential routes in the city.

Before getting out on the road, check the weather conditions and be extra cautious as you come to work or go home. Watch out for the snow plows and give them extra room so they can do their jobs in clearing the roads.
